

Dynamic Programming Study Guide

Memoization stores results for states reached by recursion.

It avoids recomputing overlapping subproblems.

For Fibonacci: $dp[n] = dp[n - 1] + dp[n - 2]$.

Tabulation

Tabulation fills states bottom-up from known base cases.

It can reduce Fibonacci space to $O(1)$ by retaining two values.